

Forensic Services

□ Listen to this

Ouachita Behavioral Health and Wellness provides a range of Forensic Services for both civil and criminal court systems. Many courts require the expertise of a Forensic Psychologist that possesses the clinical experience and qualifications to provide psychological evaluations and expert testimony regarding both criminal and civil cases. They have the ability to bring the science of human behavior to the judicial system. These evaluations aid in helping judges and juries make informed and educated decisions.

Ouachita Behavioral Health and Wellness provides the following types of Forensic Services:

- Law Enforcement Certification
- Fitness to Proceed Examination (Must be requested through courts and ordered by a Judge)
- Criminal Responsibility Examination (Must be requested through courts and ordered by a Judge)
